My fee in the second year of membership

What is the difference between my membership fees in my first and my second years?

- Your initial membership fee is a non-refundable amount paid by a new member upon confirmation of RTO/ERO membership eligibility. The amount charged depends on the month in which your membership starts (see application fee table on the previous page).
- Your full membership fee is paid annually, starting from the first calendar year after you first join. Members who receive OTPP pension pay $1.25 per $1,000 of their gross OTPP pension. For all other membership categories, see below.

How much is my membership in RTO/ERO?

Full members

- Receiving an Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan (OTPP) – Your membership fee for next year will be deducted directly from your Ontario Teachers' Pension in January. The 2015 rate is $1.25 per $1,000 of gross annual pension, e.g. if your pension is $25,000 per annum, your annual RTO/ERO fee is $$1.25 \times 25 = \31.25 .
- All others – You will be invoiced for your membership fee for next year. The fee is based on the average fee paid by Full Members in receipt of Ontario Teachers' Pension. In 2015 the fee is $55.

Associate members

- Surviving Spouse – Your membership fee for next year will be deducted directly from your Ontario Teachers' Survivor Pension. The 2015 rate is $1.25 per $1,000 of gross annual pension, e.g. if your pension is $25,000 per annum, your annual RTO/ERO fee is $$1.25 \times 25 = \31.25 .
- Actively Employed – You will be invoiced for your membership fee for next year. The 2015 fee is $32.
- All others – You will be invoiced for your membership fee for next year. The fee is based on the average fee paid by Full Members in receipt of Ontario Teachers' Pension. In 2015 the fee is $55.

How do I pay for my membership?

- If you are a Full member or a Surviving Spouse collecting an Ontario Teachers' Pension, your full-year membership fee will be deducted directly from your January pension.
- All other members will be invoiced.

Do I have to be an RTO/ERO member if I want to participate in RTO/ERO group insurance plans?

- Yes. Your RTO/ERO membership must be in good standing to participate in RTO/ERO group insurance plans.
